

Position S-3

Job Title:

Training Center English Teacher

School Descriptions:

We're teachers and students, creatives and analysts, visionaries and doers. Together, we open students to the world through education, and break down barriers of language, culture and geography in the classroom. Learners explore real world content through stunning images, text, and video to strengthen their existing global connections while learning English. Over the past 7 years, our goal has been to inspire, illuminate, and develop learners of English by introducing learners to the world around them. Our school currently has up to 18 campuses in different locations around Beijing, with more on the way even now. We hope you can be a part of what we're building together.
